

10. DEPARTMENT OF MECHANICAL ENGINEERING

TECHNICAL EVENT SPARK2K19

Mechanical Department arranged SPARK2K19 technical events on the occasion of Engineers day. which is held on date 20/09/2019 and 21/09/2019. Paper presentation and quiz competition is held on day 20 sep.2019 and poster presentation and model making competition is held on date 21/09/2019.

In model competition student do working models with technical knowledge, use of available resources and try to develop model as ecofriendly model with new ideas. Total entries for this event are nearly 18. In poster presentation event students sketch posters by hand and display his views regarding technical knowledge also add new things in the posters. Total entries for this event are nearly 14. In paper presentation event students create a power point presentation and do that presentation in front of the students and judges. This develops students' confidence level. Total entries for this event are nearly 08 groups. In quiz competition event students participate to see his technical knowledge because by giving quiz competition test he know that how the screening test is taken at the time of campus placement. Total entries for this event are nearly 46 students.

This technical event develops students personality, students communication skills, presentation skills, decision making skills, organizing skills, improve hidden potential and confidence level of the students.

